

BONDHOLDERS JOIN IN SUIT ON WABASH

Equitable Trust Co., as Trustee,
Wants to Share in Foreclosure.

SEEKS ALL OVER $5,000,000

Central Trust Co., for the Note
Holders, Is Said to Be Willing.

Following the disclosures concerning the Wabash Railroad and the apparent depreciation of the Pacific Express stock held as part of the collateral of the $5,000,000 4 1/2 per cent. notes of the bond through the transfer of the express business on the Gould railroads to the Wells Fargo Express Company, the Equitable Trust Company filed a petition yesterday in the Federal Court asking for permission to intervene in the foreclosure suit brought by the Central Trust Company.

The Central Trust is trustee for the note, while the Equitable is trustee under the mortgage for all the outstanding first refunding and extension bonds. The notes have first claim on the sale of the collateral.

The Equitable's purpose is to share in any surplus over the $5,000,000 after the sale of the collateral, of which Pacific Express Company stock is not a part. The Central Trust Company will file an answer, it is understood, agreeing to such intervention.

The lawyers representing banking interests connected with the financing of the Wabash have been in consultation for the last few days.

It was learned that the Central Trust Company did not object to the sale of the Pacific Express Company's business to the Wells Fargo, nor the fact that the 12-000 shares of Pacific Express Company stock, which it held as collateral for the $5,000,000 4 1/2 per cent. bond, had depreciated owing to the deal put through by the Gould until a month before the maturity of the notes. When the notes matured in May, 1913, the Wabash defaulted on them.

The trust company did not bring suit on discovering the depreciation, as it was not deemed wise to sue before the maturity of the notes, in case that the Wabash might be able to pay them or the remaining collateral might be sufficient to reimburse the note holders.

After the default the question of a separate suit was raised by the note holders' protective committee, but the lawyers advised that such a suit would not be wise because in the foreclosure sale the $5,000,000 might be realized. The agreement whereby the Equitable Trust Company has filed a petition to intervene in the suit brought by the Central Trust Company was believed to be the best way to preserve the rights of all in a single suit.

BROWN STILL OFFERING STOCK.

Indicted Promoter Says Franklin's
Incorporated Needs $40,000.

Nova Adolphus Brown, head of N. A. Brown & Co., Inc., of 1 Wall street, who was indicted recently by the Federal Grand Jury on a charge of operating a mail swindle with Floyd N. Pringle, Harold Lewis Davis, continues to send out letters offering stock in Franklin's Incorporated, a candy manufacturing concern, the stock sale of which formed the basis of the Government's charge.

A letter issued by Brown under date of July 15 announces a "special offer" of the candy stock at $8 a share for ten shares. The letter recites the history of Franklin's Incorporated and says that $40,000 cash is required to purchase raw materials for the manufacture of sufficient candy to supply the demand.

DOESN'T FEAR BOLL WEEVIL.

Southern Railway Head Says Cotton
Damage Won't Be Large.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—President W. W. Finley of the Southern Railway Company said today that damage to cotton by the boll weevil which has appeared along the lines of the Southern Railway in Mississippi and western Alabama will not be disastrous.

"Men familiar with the fight against the weevil west of the Mississippi believe that this season's work will show the farmers east of the river that by the adoption of the method inaugurated by the late Dr. Seaman A. Knapp cotton can be produced profitably in the East under boll weevil conditions. With the improved weevil verified farming, crop rotation and live stock raising the insect will not seriously injure the farmers of the Southeastern States."
